

Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland

Coláiste Ríoga na Máinlíá in Éirinn

Trinity College

HRB CENTRE FOR PRIMARY CARE RESEARCH is a multidisciplinary collaborative Programme with the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland, Trinity College Dublin and Queen's University Belfast. We wish to appoint two research fellows:

RESEARCH FELLOW IN HEALTH SERVICES RESEARCH (RCSI) (Ref: PDHSR/001)

This post based in RCSI, relates to the Work Package in Information and Communication Technology (ICT) in primary care and is focused on development and implementation of clinical knowledge sources.

RESEARCH FELLOW IN PHARMACY PRACTICE (QUB) (Ref: 09/100781)

This post relates to two Work Packages (1 and 3) and will focus on clinical diagnosis, management and co-ordination of care in vulnerable patient groups in the community and Information and Communication Technology (ICT) in primary care. The research fellow will be based at the School of Pharmacy, Queen's University Belfast.

APPLICATIONS FOR THIS POST MUST BE MADE THROUGH QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY BELFAST VIA www.qub.ac.uk/sites/qubjobvacancies//

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Closing date for receipt of applications is: Friday, 20 February, 4pm.

Please forward a covering letter along with a copy of your curriculum vitae quoting reference number:

For Ref: PDHSR/001 contact Niall Doherty, Project Officer, Division of Population Health Sciences, RCSI, Beaux Lane House, Mercer Street Lower, Dublin 2. Tel: +353 1 402 2473 Email: nialldoherty@rcsi.ie
Informal enquiries about the posts may be made to Professor Tom Fahey Email: tomfahey@rcsi.ie

For Ref 09/100781: Informal enquiries to Dr. Heather Anderson, E-mail: h.anderson@qub.ac.uk Applications for this post must be made through Queen's University Belfast www.qub.ac.uk/sites/QUBJobVacancies// where details of the job description can be found.

For both job descriptions, please log onto www.rcsi.ie/postdocfellowopportunities

RCSI is an equal opportunities employer

www.rcsi.ie